

Bachelor of Arts in Social and Criminal Justice

Program Type: Online

Did You Know?

- All CCAF AAS degrees are accepted in transfer by the University of Arizona Global Campus.
- You only need a maximum of 60 additional credits from the University of Arizona Global Campus to complete your Bachelor of Arts in Social and Criminal Justice.

Degree Focus:

The Social and Criminal Justice major offers a unique interdisciplinary program that examines criminal justice from a perspective that sees it as a means of building a more just society. Students examine topics such as forensics, psychology, crime prevention, the Constitution, criminal law, and the correctional system. This program leads to a baccalaureate degree in liberal arts. It is eligible for federal financial aid, but not subject to the gainful employment requirements.

Program Outcomes:

Social and Criminal Justice major graduates will be able to:

- Analyze criminal justice issues within the systems of law enforcement, the judiciary, and corrections;
- Evaluate the application of the social justice principles of equality, solidarity, and human rights toward building a just society;
- Apply knowledge of cultural sensitivity and diversity awareness to social and criminal justice;
- Deconstruct the relationship between law enforcement, the judiciary, and corrections;
- Interpret the relationship between social justice and criminal justice; and
- Develop critical perspectives in the study of social and criminal justice by drawing on the fields of criminology, law, philosophy, psychology, science, and sociology.
