

PLA Credit Evaluation

Summary For: Revature

The University of Arizona Global Campus recognizes the uniqueness of each student's experience and realizes learning takes place in a variety of environments. The Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) program provides a means for awarding credit to students who bring college-level learning experiences acquired outside of a traditional university classroom setting. Students may pursue their academic and professional goals through a variety of degree programs at the University of Arizona Global Campus.

Credit recommendations are subject to the student's major and transfer credits. UD = Upper Division, LD = Lower Division
Credit recommendation shown is the maximum number of credits students can receive if additional credits are needed to fulfill the elective requirement for graduation.

Student Eligibility for the Revature Training

Students are eligible to apply for PLA credit once the following requirements are met:

- Current Revature employee /OR/ Successful completion of Revature trainings
- Full admission into a Global Campus undergraduate degree program
- Additional credits remain to fulfill the elective requirement for graduation

Students Are Responsible for the Following:

- Discuss PLA with their Student Advisor
- Review policies and procedures posted in the PLA Information Center
- Register in the PLA Credit Review Center, submit a Credit Rationale Paper, and submit proof of training completion from Revature. Students must include the Revature Training title in their Credit Rationale Paper.

Transfer Provisions

Students must complete 120 credits to obtain a Bachelor's degree. A maximum of 90 combined non-traditional learning, prior learning, and transfer credits may be accepted and applied toward the 120-credit requirement. Within the 90-credit maximum, a maximum of 75 credits of non-traditional credit may be applied toward degree completion (depending on student's state of residence). For state specific information, please refer to the Undergraduate General Transfer Credit Provisions and Limitations in the Global Campus catalog. The prior learning assessment option is not available to non-degree seeking students or to students in specific graduate degree programs. Official transfer credit evaluation takes place once a student is enrolled at the University of Arizona Global Campus, and all official transcripts have been received.
