

GUIDED PATHWAY: MANAGEMENT A.A.S.

BUSINESS, HOSPITALITY and GLOBAL TRADE CAREER PATH

For more information, visit the Dallas College Management webpage [www.dcccd.edu/Management] and your success coach at your campus.

This is an example course sequence for students interested in pursuing Management. It does not represent a contract, nor does it guarantee course availability. Following this pathway will help you earn an Associate of Applied Science (A.A.S.) degree in Management. Students must earn at least 25% of the credit hours (15 hours) required for graduation through instruction by Dallas College. Visit the catalog for official degree requirements.

The A.A.S. degree in Management is a flexible offering of business courses designed to accommodate the specific needs of currently employed students. You will learn practical management skills in the areas of goal setting, leadership, problem solving, human resources, and team building. These are skills required of successful employees, not just managers. By acquiring and applying knowledge in this field, you enhance your visibility and marketability on the job while demonstrating the capability of accepting new challenges. Courses that complete the degree will also complete the Management (MC) and Supervisor (SC) Certificates (Supervisor Certificate not offered at BHC).

Visit the NTCCC Transfer Consortium to view guided pathways created for students who complete an A.A.S. degree and the options for transfer to complete a Bachelor of Applied Arts and Science. Speak with your success coach at your campus to choose courses that will help you to transfer to a specific university.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA GLOBAL CAMPUS

The Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Management program at the University of Arizona Global Campus (UAGC) is designed for students who have work experience and desire to improve their understanding of how organizations function and develop effective skills in management and leadership. The curriculum places emphasis on the human side of managing organizations, allowing for skill development in communication, group behavior, decision making, human resource management, and ethics. Focused attention is given to defining and understanding strategic planning, financial management, law, and marketing areas in which an organizational leader must be knowledgeable to be effective.

It is best to apply to UAGC 3-5 weeks before students plan to transfer. It will help if students submit a copy of this pathway with their application as well as an unofficial transcript showing their degree. All specified courses are required. UAGC has recommended courses for the general education categories which may vary by program. Students will work with an UAGC Academic Advisor to schedule appropriate courses once enrolled.

This program to program transfer pathway is unofficial; does not guarantee automatic acceptance of transfer credits; and is based solely on Dallas College coursework with a grade of C- or better. The University of Arizona Global Campus (UAGC) course applicability and availability to take additional coursework beyond the designated Dallas degree will vary based on each student's individual transfer credit situation. We recommend students work with their UAGC Academic Advisor during their first UAGC course to ensure duplicative coursework is not scheduled pending their official transfer credit evaluation. For complete degree, residency, and transfer credit policies, please refer to the UAGC catalog. Successful completion of this UAGC program by itself does not provide licensure or certification in any state, regardless of concentration or specialization. Certain degree programs may not be available in all states.

Lower-division transfer courses will not count towards the 30-credit upper-division requirement at UAGC.
